

GOVERNMENT APPOINTS KIC CHIEF AS HONORARY AMBASSADOR FOR FINANCIAL COOPERATION

The government announced the appointment of Jin Seung-ho, chairman and CEO of the Korea Investment Corporation, as the country's honorary ambassador for financial cooperation on February 15.

The honorary ambassador for financial cooperation will help promote Korea's financial markets to foreign investors and work to draw overseas financial companies to establish businesses here in Korea according to the 5th three-year plan for Korea's financial hub policy announced by the FSC in May 2020.¹

Mr. Jin Seung-ho is an expert in international finance and has previously served in key positions at the Ministry of Economy and Finance. The new honorary ambassador's one-year term will begin after an official approval from the President.
