Chairman/Governor Yoon Jeung-Hyun to Visit Hong Kong, Thailand and Singapore for Talks on Supervisory Cooperation

Chairman/Governor Yoon Jeung-Hyun of the Financial Supervisory Commission and Financial Supervisory Service will visit Hong Kong, Singapore and Thailand and meet with senior supervisors and business leaders from August 31 to September 7. Throughout the trip, discussions are planned on wide-ranging supervisory issues, including cross-border supervisory cooperation, investor/consumer protection under free trade regime, MOU on exchange of information and joint examination, and implementation of Basel II capital framework. Chairman/Governor Yoon also plans to take the opportunity to share Korea's success with financial-sector reform and promote its financial hub initiative to business leaders in the three countries.
