<sup>1</sup> Initially planned to be held at Dongdaemun Design Plaza in Seoul, the 2020 Korea Fintech Week was moved to online due to public health concerns amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

(ONLINE JOB FAIR) HR managers from 35 financial companies and fintech firms will provide information about job openings, nature of work and qualities they look for in new hires. About a dozen companies have plans to actually hire about 47 new recruits from this online job fair process. Various educational contents to help job seekers with their job search will also be provided.

(CYBER VOICE PHISHING PREVENTION HALL) To raise awareness about the serious consequences of cyber voice phishing, this virtual exhibition hall will introduce voice phishing prevention app and relevant technologies while providing educational materials on how to detect and prevent voice phishing.
