FSC TO HOST SPECIAL SESSION ON GREEN FINANCE AT THE 2021 P4G SEOUL SUMMIT

The FSC will host a green future session on the topic of green finance at the 2021 P4G Seoul Summit at Dongdaemun Design Plaza on Saturday, May 29, from 20:00 to 22:00 (Korean Standard Time). The special session on green finance will be available for online live streaming for anyone who is interested in watching via official websites of the 2021 P4G Seoul Summit, FSC and their YouTube channels.[1]

The special session will feature discussions on the role of finance in fostering green recovery in the post-COVID-19 era. Speakers and panelists will include foreign dignitaries and experts from climate and finance-related international organizations and institutions, such as the UNFCCC, WEF, IFC, BIS, EIB, TCFD, GCF, GGGI and S&P.

FSC Chairman Eun Sung-soo will deliver opening remarks through which he will offer an outlook on the future tasks of global green finance efforts while calling for close cooperation from financial sectors across the globe to achieve carbon neutrality. In particular, Chairman Eun will introduce Korea's green finance policies that have been actively pursued by the government as it announced the 2050 carbon net zero goal last year.

The special session on green finance will shed a new light on the important role of finance in responding to climate change. It will also help raise domestic financial sectors' interest and participation in green finance efforts.

For more details about the program, please see the attached reference material.

OPENING SESSION

Eun Sung-soo
Chairman, Financial Services Commission, Republic of Korea
은성수 금융위원회 위원장

Eun Sung-soo
Chairman, Financial Services Commission,
Republic of Korea

Eun Sung-soo took office as the Chairman of the Financial Services Commission (FSC) on September 9, 2019. Prior to his appointment as FSC Chairman, Mr. Eun served as the Chairman & President of the Export-Import Bank of Korea (KEXIM) for two years from September 2017 to September 2019. He also led the Korea Investment Corporation (KIC), Korea's sovereign wealth fund, from January 2016 to September 2017.

Chairman Eun began his career in 1984 as a government official in the Ministry of Finance (MOF). His extensive expertise in economic and financial policy was built from his career path in public service for more than thirty years. He served in positions steering Korea's financial policy, which earned him hands-on experience in regulatory improvement, financial industry development and corporate restructuring.

His practical knowledge in financial affairs paved the way for him to be at the forefront of fighting against the aftermath of the global financial crisis and the eurozone crisis. From 2011 to 2012, he served as the Director General of International Finance Bureau at the Ministry of Economy and Finance (MOEF), where he played a key role in stabilizing Korea's financial markets with macro-prudential measures and currency swap agreements. As Finance Deputy Minister of MOEF in 2013 and Executive Director of the World Bank in 2014, he remarkedly contributed to the promotion of regional and international cooperation.
Chairman Eun received a bachelor's degree in Economics from Seoul National University in 1984 and earned a Ph.D. in Economics from University of Hawaii in 1996.

은성수
금융위원회 위원장

은성수 위원장은 2019년 9월부터 금융위원장으로 재직중이다. 이전에는 한국수출입은행장(2017년 9월~2019년 9월) 및 한국투자공사 사장(2016년 1월~ 2017년 9월)을 역임하였다.

은 위원장은 1984년 재무부 사무관으로 공직을 시작하여, 30년 이상 경제금융정책 분야에서 전문성을 쌓아왔으며, 특히 대한민국의 금융 정책을 총괄하는 다양한 직책을 역임하며, 금융규제 개혁, 금융산업 발전 및 기업 구조조정 등에서 전문성을 쌓았다. 이러한 전문성을 바탕으로 은 위원장은 2008년 글로벌 금융위기 및 유로존 위기 극복과정에 크게 기여했다. 특히, 2011년부터 2012년까지는 기획재정부 국제금융정책국장으로서 거시건전성 규제 및 통화스왑 협정 등을 통해 대한민국의 금융시장 안정화에 기여하였으며, 2013년 기획재정부 국제업무관리관 및 2014년 세계은행 상임이사 재직 시에는 글로벌 및 역내 금융협력에 기여했다.

은 위원장은 1984년 서울대학교 경제학과를 졸업하였으며, 1996년 미국 하와이대학교 대학원에서 경제학 박사학위를 받았다.

Makhtar Diop
Managing Director, International Finance Corporation(IFC)

Makhtar Diop is IFC's Managing Director and Executive Vice President. He assumed this position on March 1st, 2021. Prior to this appointment, he was the World Bank's Vice President for Infrastructure, where he led the Bank's global efforts to build sustainable infrastructure in developing and emerging economies. In this role, he oversaw the Bank's critical work in energy, transport, digital infrastructure, and public-private partnerships.
Prior to this, Mr. Diop served for six years as the World Bank's Vice President for Africa, where he oversaw the delivery of a record-breaking USD$70 billion to Sub-Saharan Africa to help tackle development challenges such as increasing access to energy; boosting women's and youth's economic empowerment; and promoting an enabling environment for more innovation and technology adoption. A passionate advocate for Africa's right to clean and affordable electricity, he also called for greater investment in renewable energy and pushed for stronger regional interconnectivity in the power and transport sectors. He previously served as World Bank Director for Finance, Private Sector & Infrastructure in the Latin America and the Caribbean Region; Country Director for Brazil, where he helped finance major infrastructure work; and Country Director for Kenya, Eritrea, and Somalia.
Mr. Diop brings to the post a deep level of experience and understanding of development challenges and a firm grasp of the public/private sector interface. His main priorities will be to mobilize investments in the poorest and most fragile countries and create the conditions for a resilient, inclusive, and sustainable recovery. In addition to his international organization experience, Mr. Diop, an economist by training who started his career in the banking industry before joining the IMF and later the World Bank, has extensive private sector experience. He has also held government positions, most notably as Minister of Economy and Finance of Senegal, where he played a key role in instituting structural reforms that helped build a strong foundation for Senegal's growth in the late 1980s.
A recognized opinion leader in the economic and social development field, Makhtar Diop has been named one of the 100 most influential Africans in the world. In 2015, he received the prestigious Regents' Lectureship Award from the University of California, Berkeley. Mr. Diop holds degrees in economics from the Universities of Warwick and Nottingham in England.

Panelist

Mary Schapiro
Head of Task force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) Secretariat

Mary L. Schapiro serves as an advisor at the Financial Stability Board's Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures, one of the important capacities in Bloomberg, which developed and garnered widespread support for a voluntary framework for corporate disclosure of climate-related risk information to help investors, lenders, underwriters and others make informed financial decisions. She is the Vice Chair for Global Public Policy of Bloomberg, the global financial technology company that was founded in 1981. She has been at Bloomberg since October 2018 and serves as a Special Advisor to the Founder and Chairman.

Ms. Schapiro, who has had a distinguished career as a financial services regulator under four U.S. presidents from both political parties, oversees Bloomberg's public policy and regulatory priorities globally. Her service as the 29th SEC Chair culminated decades of regulatory leadership. She was the first woman to serve as SEC Chair, and the only person to have served as chair of both the SEC and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission. During her four years as SEC Chair, Ms. Schapiro presided over one of the busiest rulemaking agendas in the SEC's history, during which the agency also executed a comprehensive restructuring program to improve protections for investors and pursued aggressive enforcement of the federal securities laws.

Ms. Schapiro also serves as an advisor to Bloomberg in multiple capacities, including the Financial Stability Board's Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD), as well as the Working Group on U.S. RMB Trading and Clearing, and the Climate Finance Leadership Initiative. The Working Group on U.S. RMB Trading and Clearing supports the internationalization of China's currency in order to improve the competitiveness and efficiency of U.S. businesses by lowering trading costs and improving access to China's markets.

She serves on the board of both Morgan Stanley (NYSE: MS), and CVS Health (NYSE: CVS). She is also a member of the governing board of the Center for Audit Quality and serves on advisory boards at the China Securities Regulatory Commission and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. She is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Board of Trustees of Franklin and Marshall College.
